HEALING THE WOUNDS OF HISTORY

Holocaust Memorial Day 27th January 2019

Theme: Torn From Home

“Time for Reflection”

12 noon to 4pm

St Martin Coney Street, York

Come to see a visual presentation arranged by the Rev'd David Simpson, plus input from pupils of Bootham School York, that will focus on the scope of the theme -

- The meaning of home before genocide
- Torn from home during genocide
- A home after genocide

The three images above from the Holocaust Memorial Day website, show a refugee camp during the genocide in Rwanda, the Kinder transport, (Nazi persecution) and a burning village in Darfur. Other genocides include Cambodia, and Bosnia.

This is a 'drop-in' session when you are welcome to stay for as long or as short a time as you wish. There will be opportunity throughout for gentle participation and to light a peace prayer candle. The time will conclude with prayer. For further details about Holocaust Memorial Day 2019, please visit www.hmd.org.uk
